

Call for Proposals
The Israeli Association of Criminology Bi-Annual Meeting
Jerusalem, Wednesday-Thursday 17-18.5.2017
Crime, Victimization, and Law Enforcement:
Local and International Perspectives

The Israeli Society of Criminology is pleased to invite you to its Bi-Annual Meeting, which will be held on 17-18 May 2017 at Ramat Rachel Resort in Jerusalem. The main theme of the Meeting will focus on the local and international aspects of crime and victimization as well as on the available responses to these phenomena. The Meeting provides a platform for researchers, students and professionals within the field of criminology to present their scientific activity to the criminological community in Israel. The Conference is held for the third time and continues the tradition of productive academic discourse among researchers and professionals.

During the Meeting, the names of the Israeli Association of Criminology award winners for 2016 will be announced: the Lifetime Achievement in Criminology Award; the Outstanding Student Paper Award, and the President's Prize. Call for Nominees will be published soon by the Head of the Award Committee, Prof. Simha Landau.

Researchers from academic institutions as well as independent researchers are invited to propose research papers to be presented at the conference. We welcome submissions from various disciplines and those using a variety of theoretical and methodological approaches. Proposals can be submitted for individual presentations, full sessions, round tables and posters related to the conference theme. We also invite proposals for art exhibitions by organizations or individuals involved in the field of criminology.

Single Session Proposals: Should include title, presenter's name, institutional affiliation, keywords (ideally drawn from the list of topics below), and an abstract of up to 200 words. Abstracts should include a general description of the topic, as well as a description and method of research findings, if relevant.

Panel Proposals: Should include the title, participants' names and institutional affiliations, keywords, a brief description of the panel, and a separate abstract for each presentation (up to 200 words each).

Round Table Proposals: Round tables are suitable for informal presentations of research in progress and on-going collaborative projects. Proposals should include title, participants' names and institutional affiliations, keywords, and abstract not exceeding 200 words describing the research, the research method, findings where applicable, and questions that emerge from the research.

Artistic Exhibition Proposals: Should include the title, presenters' names and institutional affiliations, keywords and abstract not exceeding 200 words. The Committee will consider artistic and therapeutic projects that are related to the conference theme.

Poster Proposals: Should include title, presenter's name, institutional affiliation, keywords and abstract not exceeding 200 words. Posters should present work in progress or initial findings.

Suggested topics (other topics are welcome):

- Criminology of place
- Trust and legitimacy of law enforcement
- Policing and regulation
- Restorative justice and alternatives to punishment
- Rehabilitative programs and evaluations
- Theories in Criminology and victimology.
- Evidence-based Criminology
- Positive Criminology
- Victimology and victims' rights
- Crime and victimization among disempowered populations
- Addiction and crime
- Juvenile delinquency
- Gender and crime
- Research methods in Criminology
- Organized crime
- Penology and corrections
- Political crimes
- Forensic psychology
- Sexual crimes
- Neuro-psychological aspects of crime
- Criminal law and criminal justice
- Institutional crime
- research students panel

Proposals should be submitted to the Academic Committee at Israel.criminology.association@gmail.com, with the applicant's name, affiliation, phone, email information. All proposals will undergo a peer-review process. The deadline for submitting proposals for a single papers, Panels, round tables, and artistic exhibition is Tuesday 31.1.2017. The deadline for submitting poster proposals is Friday, 31.3.2017.

Conference registration:

	Early registration (until 31.3.17)	Registration after 1.4.17
Conference fee + two years membership (2017-2018)	NIS600	NIS700
Student rate* + Two years membership	NIS300	NIS350
Conference fee without membership	NIS450

All presenters at the conference are required to register.

Accommodation: Those interested in staying at the Ramat Rachel Resort can reserve a single/double room for a special rate of NIS670/NIS790 per night, including breakfast. For non-Israel residents the rate for a double room is NIS660 (no VAT). Please contact Ms. Revital Yezdi at revitaly@ayalagroup.co.il for reservations and inquiries.

Sincerely,

Dr. Tali Gal

Dr. Hagit Turgeman

Conference Academic Committee Chairs

* It is necessary to display a valid student card