

The Scottish Institute
for Policing Research

The Center for Evidence-Based Crime Policy and the Scottish Institute for Policing Research

warmly welcome you to

The 2013 CEBCP-SIPR Joint Symposium and Congressional Briefing on Evidence-Based Policing

April 8 Symposium at George Mason University's Arlington Campus
Translating Police Research to Practice: Perspectives from Police-Research Partnerships

April 9 Congressional Briefing at the U.S. Capitol, HVC 201
Moving beyond Arrest: Research on Policing and Young People

with support from the Bureau of Justice Assistance (through the CEBCP's Matrix Demonstration Project), George Mason University's College of Humanities and Social Sciences and the Office of University Life, the Scottish Government, and the Police Foundation.

Center for Evidence-Based Crime Policy (CEBCP) &
The Scottish Institute for Policing Research (SIPR)
2013 Annual Symposium and Congressional Briefing
George Mason University and the U.S. Capitol, April 8 - 9, 2013

SUMMARY AGENDA

APRIL 8 - 9, 2013

full agenda follows on next pages

MONDAY, April 8, 2013

FOUNDERS HALL, GMU-ARLINGTON

8:30 AM	Registration	FOUNDERS HALL, First Floor
9:00 AM	Welcome and Morning Keynote Plenary Using evidence in practice	FOUNDERS HALL, Auditorium
10:25 AM	Morning Concurrent Panels Policing beyond the city Policing vulnerable populations	FOUNDERS HALL, Auditorium FOUNDERS HALL, Room 113
12:05 PM	CEBCP Awards Luncheon Evidence-Based Policing Hall of Fame Distinguished Achievement Award in Evidence-Based Crime Policy	FOUNDERS HALL, 125/126
1:10 PM	Afternoon Concurrent Panels Evidence-translation and knowledge exchange Establishing community partnerships in policing Improving research and practice for police legitimacy	FOUNDERS HALL, Auditorium FOUNDERS HALL, Room 113 FOUNDERS HALL, Room 118
2:50 PM	Afternoon Keynote Plenary Using research in policing: Why the focus on places?	FOUNDERS HALL, Auditorium
3:50 PM	Adjourn

TUESDAY, April 9, 2013

U.S. CAPITOL VISITOR CENTER HVC 201

9:15 AM	Registration
10:00 AM	Congressional briefing Moving beyond arrest: Research on policing and young people
12:00 PM	Adjourn

MONDAY MORNING, April 8, 2013

FOUNDERS HALL, GMU-ARLINGTON

8:15am - 9:00am	Registration	FOUNDERS HALL, First Floor
9:00am - 9:15am	Welcome by David Weisburd and Nicholas Fyfe	FOUNDERS HALL, Auditorium
9:15am - 10:15am	Morning Plenary: Using evidence In practice	FOUNDERS HALL, Auditorium

- SANDRA NUTLEY (St. Andrews University). Using evidence in practice and policy.
- NICK FYFE (University of Dundee/SIPR). Structure and agency in police-academic partnerships: The example of SIPR.
- CYNTHIA LUM (George Mason University). The supply and demand for research in policing.
- DARREL STEPHENS (Major City Chiefs Association, and EBP Hall of Fame Member). The future of research in policing.

10:15am - 10:25am Break

10:25am - 11:55am Two morning concurrent panels to choose from:

Policing beyond the city: Research, analysis and performance measures in small, rural and suburban places FOUNDERS HALL, Auditorium

- BEN EKELUND (International Association of Chiefs of Police). IACP Smaller Agency Survey: Priorities and issues from the field.
- GARY CORDNER (Kutztown University). Small/rural policing in the U.S.: Insights from three projects.
- TARA FENWICK (University of Stirling/SIPR). Rural policing in Scotland: Unique challenges, knowledge, and practices.
- JAMES WILLIS (George Mason University). Thinking about quality in assessing police performance.
- CHRISTOPHER KOPER (George Mason University). Facilitator/discussant.

Policing and vulnerable populations: Missing persons, mentally ill, and the homeless FOUNDERS HALL, Room 113

- PENNY WOOLNOUGH (Scottish Police Service/SIPR). Spatial and social profiling for missing persons investigations.
- OLIVIA STEVENSON (University of Glasgow/SIPR). Missing people: Narratives of missing experience.
- MELISSA REULAND (Senior Consultant to the Council of State Governments). Specialized Police Responses (SPR) to people with mental illnesses.
- CLARK KIMERER and JIM DERMODY (Seattle Police Department). Policing the most vulnerable: Public safety and the homeless & mentally ill.
- NICK FYFE (University of Dundee/SIPR). Facilitator/discussant.

LOCATION: Founders Hall, Room 125/126

WELCOME

CYNTHIA LUM, Director of the Center for Evidence-Based Crime Policy to introduce
DR. ÁNGEL CABRERA, President of George Mason University

BON APPETIT!

Jazz ensemble presented by musicians from GMU's School of Music

EVIDENCE-BASED POLICING HALL OF FAME AWARD

Presented by Jim Burch III, Deputy Assistant Attorney General, Office of Justice Programs

GENERAL JOSÉ ROBERTO LEÓN RIAÑO, National Police of Colombia
LT. COLONEL JAMES WHALEN, Assistant Police Chief, Cincinnati Police Department

DISTINGUISHED ACHIEVEMENT AWARD IN EVIDENCE-BASED CRIME POLICY

Presented by David Weisburd, Executive Director, Center for Evidence-Based Crime Policy

LAURIE ROBINSON, George Mason University
LAWRENCE SHERMAN, University of Cambridge and the University of Maryland

SPECIAL THANKS

Today's lunch is sponsored by the Center for Evidence-Based Crime Policy, the College of Humanities and Social Sciences, and Mason's Office of University Life. We also would like to thank the excellent service provided by the servers and musicians from George Mason University. They always make our events extra special!

Fun facts about George Mason University

- Almost 33,000 students are currently enrolled at George Mason University.
- Mason is one of the most diverse campuses in the United States.
- There are over 1,400 faculty members who teach, research, and provide outreach to local, state, national, and international communities.
- For the fifth year in a row, the Chronicle of Higher Education, the premier publication for academic news and issues, named Mason one of the "Great Colleges to Work For."
- The Center for Evidence-Based Crime Policy, housed within the Department of Criminology, Law and Society at GMU celebrates its 5th anniversary this year!
- The Department of Criminology, Law and Society is among the top 20 criminology graduate programs in the country and climbing. We award doctoral, master's and bachelor's degrees in Criminology, Law and Society.

1:10pm - 2:40pm      Three afternoon concurrent panels to choose from:

Evidence-translation and knowledge exchange between researchers and practitioners

FOUNDERS HALL, Auditorium

- CODY TELEP (George Mason University). The receptivity of police to research: An examination of officer survey data from two agencies.
- TIM BYNUM (Michigan State University). The promise and challenges of researcher-practitioner partnerships in policing.
- GILL CLARK (Scottish Government). Research, policy and practice in Scotland.
- RICK TANKSLEY (Oak Park, IL Police Department and EBP Hall of Fame Member). Communicating research findings: The role of first line supervisors.
- JOHN KAPINOS (Fairfax County Police Department, and EBP Hall of Fame Member). Systematic strategies for research-practitioner partnerships.
- CYNTHIA LUM and SANDRA NUTLEY. Discussants/facilitators.

Establishing community partnerships in policing

FOUNDERS HALL, Room 113

- ALISTAIR HENRY (University of Edinburgh/SIPR) and JIM ROYAN (Scottish Police Service). Title forthcoming.
- CLAUDIA GROSS-SHADER (Seattle City Auditor's Office), MARIKO LOCKHART (Seattle Youth Violence Prevention Initiative) and CHARLOTTE GILL (George Mason University). Engaging community partners at juvenile crime hot spots in Seattle.
- ED MCGARRELL (Michigan State University). Police-community partnerships for violence reduction: Reflections from Project Safe Neighborhoods.
- ROBIN ENGEL (University of Cincinnati) and WILLIAM GRAHAM (Glasgow Caledonian University). The importance of police partnerships to reduce violence: Experiences from Cincinnati, Ohio and Glasgow, Scotland.
- DAVID WEISBURD (George Mason University). Discussant/facilitator.

Improving research and practice for police legitimacy

FOUNDERS HALL, Room 118

- DENNIS ROSENBAUM (University of Illinois, Chicago). Legitimacy, procedural justice, and police-citizen encounters: New directions in measurement and training.
- DEVON JOHNSON (George Mason University). Police legitimacy in Trinidad and Tobago.
- STEVE MASTROFSKI (George Mason University). Systematic field observation of procedural justice in policing.
- HASSAN ADEN (Chief, Greenville NC Police Department and EBP Hall of Fame Member). Establishing a solid community foundation-legitimacy depends on it.
- NICK FYFE (University of Dundee/SIPR). Discussant/facilitator.

2:50pm - 3:50pm      Closing Plenary: Using research in policing:
Why the focus on places?

FOUNDERS HALL, Auditorium

- DAVID WEISBURD (George Mason University). The criminology of places.
- SUSAN MCVIE (University of Edinburgh). Linking neighborhood data in the analysis of crime.
- JOHN ECK (University of Cincinnati). Putting policing in place (or replacing police).
- ELIZABETH GROFF (Temple University). Police deployment at places.

About tomorrow's congressional briefing...

Please join us tomorrow, as we continue our events at our Sixth Congressional Briefing: "Moving beyond arrest: Research on policing and youth." The Congressional Briefing will take place at the US Capitol Visitor Center, HV 201 and begin promptly at 10am. We will conclude at 12noon.

You should arrive at least 30 minutes ahead of time to get through security at the Capitol. DO NOT wait in the tourist line - just go straight to the glass doors and tell the guards you are there on official business with the "George Mason University Congressional Briefing."

There is no parking for the Visitor Center and attendees are strongly encouraged to take the DC Metro to either Capitol South or Union Station Metro Stations. The closest parking is at the Union Station Parking Garage. See <http://gunston.gmu.edu/cebcp/CEBCPSymposiumVenueInformation.html>

The entrance to the Visitor Center is at the intersection of East Capitol St. and First St. NE/SE on the East Side of the Capitol (the side facing the Supreme Court).

Please note that security is very tight at the Visitor Center. Information on prohibited items is available on our Symposium website. YOU CANNOT BRING ANY FOOD OR DRINK (INCLUDING WATER) OR SUITCASES INTO THE VISITOR CENTER. Law Enforcement Officers: You will not be allowed to carry any firearms into the U.S. Capitol. There is also no place to store suitcases or other prohibited items near the entrance.

"Moving Beyond Arrest: Research on Policing and Young People"

FULL AGENDA

CONGRESSIONAL BRIEFING

TUESDAY, April 9, 2013

U.S. CAPITOL VISITOR CENTER HVC 201

- 9:15am      REGISTRATION
- 10:00am      THOMAS FEUCHT (National Institute of Justice). Introductions and opening remarks.
- 10:10am      DENNIS ROSENBAUM (University of Illinois at Chicago). Police-youth encounters: Defining and addressing the legitimacy problem.
- 10:20am      JENNIFER FRATELLO (Vera Institute of Justice). Looking beyond the statistics: Planning and launching a study of young people and stop, question and frisk in New York City.
- 10:30am      LEDA BLACKWOOD (St. Andrews University/SIPR). The Muslim airport story: How practices of surveillance unite old and young.
- 10:40am      JEFFREY MURER (St. Andrews University/SIPR). Young people and collective violence: Identity performance, communication, and expressions of belonging through violence.
- 10:50am      QUESTION AND ANSWER SESSION/BREAK
- 11:00am      ROBIN ENGEL (University of Cincinnati) and WILLIAM GRAHAM (Glasgow Caledonian University). Reducing gang violence across cities and cultures: Experiences from Cincinnati, Ohio and Glasgow, Scotland.
- 11:10am      JEAN MCGLOIN (University of Maryland). Thinking about juvenile delinquency from a social network perspective.
- 11:20am      CHARLES KATZ (Arizona State University). Phoenix CeaseFire and its implications for policing gangs.
- 11:30am      SUSAN MCVIE (University of Edinburgh/SIPR). Young people's contact with the police: Context and consequences.
- 11:40am      ALISTAIR HENRY (University of Edinburgh/SIPR). Doing partnership working: Challenges and pitfalls.
- 11:50am      QUESTION AND ANSWER SESSION
- 12:00pm      ADJOURN

The Center for Evidence-Based Crime Policy at George Mason University and the Scottish Institute for Policing Research would like to thank the following people and organizations for making our Symposium and Congressional Briefing possible

---

The Bureau of Justice Assistance, US Department of Justice
The National Institute of Justice, US Department of Justice
Office of Justice Programs, US Department of Justice
The Scottish Government
The British Embassy
The Colombian Embassy
The Police Foundation and President Jim Bueermann
President Ángel Cabrera, George Mason University
The College of Humanities and Social Sciences, George Mason University
The Office of the Provost, George Mason University
The Office of University Life, George Mason University
Congressman Jim Moran and his staff, US House of Representatives
Naida Kuruvilla, CEBCP Office Manager
Tim Heilbronn, SIPR Business and Knowledge Transfer Manager
University Catering, George Mason University
Arlington Campus Events Management, George Mason University
Fairfax Campus Events Management, George Mason University
George Mason School of Music, Jazz Ensembles
The Police Research Group, Department of Criminology, George Mason University
Alexis Glenn, Creative Services, George Mason University
Sgt. Jeffery Egge, Minneapolis Police Department

...and all of our special guests who presented - thank you!