

CRIMINOLOGY & Public Policy

CUTTING-EDGE RESEARCH IN POLICE POLICY AND PRACTICE

Call for Papers for 2020 Special Issue

The editors of Criminology & Public Policy are seeking rigorous studies for a special policing issue of CPP focused on cutting edge topics in law enforcement. In particular, the special issue will focus on evaluations of police practices, policies, technologies, and organizational reforms to improve police operations and capabilities. Studies of interest may address crime prevention and resolution, police-citizen relationships, longstanding or emerging concerns, and police management. Studies that result from researcher-practitioner partnerships are especially of interest, as are empirical analyses of how research can be translated into daily law enforcement practices.

Papers for this special issue should be submitted through the ScholarOne online submission site for Criminology & Public Policy (<https://mc.manuscriptcentral.com/capp>) no later than January 15, 2020. Please contact Cynthia Lum or Christopher Koper, Editors in Chief, if you have any questions.
