

The Center for Evidence-Based Crime Policy at GMU and the Pretrial Justice Institute Present:
PRETRIAL JUSTICE: RESEARCH EVIDENCE AND FUTURE PROSPECTS
Congressional Briefing, April 1, 2014
Rayburn Building of the House of Representatives, The Gold Room (2168)

AGENDA

- 9:15 am REGISTRATION
- 10:00 am JAMES CARR (US District Court, Northern District of Ohio)
Opening Remarks
- 10:10 am JIM AUSTIN (JFA Institute)
Key National Trends in Crime, Arrests and Jails
- 10:20 am MARIE VANNOSTRAND (Luminosity)
Pretrial Decisions Determine Mostly Everything
- 10:30 am TIMOTHY CADIGAN (Chesterfield Associates)
Federal Pretrial Detention: A Cancer We Could Cure!
- 10:40 am ALEX HOLSINGER (University of Missouri-Kansas City)
*The Importance and Development of Localized Pretrial Risk Assessment
Development: Efforts In Need Of Support*
- 10:50 am Q&A/BREAK
- 11:05 am DAVID HUFFER (Court Services and Offender Supervision Agency)
Effective Community Corrections Practices in the District of Columbia
- 11:15 am MELISSA LABRIOLA (Center for Court Innovation)
Research on Prosecutor-Led Pretrial Diversion Programs: A Comprehensive Multi-Method Study
- 11:25 am JERRY MCELROY (New York Criminal Justice Agency)
Bail in New York City
- 11:35 am MICHAEL WILSON (Crime and Justice Institute)
Pretrial Cost-Benefit Analysis
- 11:45 am Q&A
- 12:00 pm ADJOURN