

LOCAL GOVERNMENT RESOURCES -- PANEL DISCUSSION

Community Policing in Juvenile Crime Hot Spots
City of Seattle West Precinct Pilot Training
April 29, 2013

Consulting with Government Agencies

- Quiz Question: For which step(s) of the 5-step problem-solving model might it be helpful to consult with other government agencies?
 1. Identify and prioritize problems
 2. Analyze problems
 3. Design response strategies
 4. Implement response strategies
 5. Assess the success of response strategies

Which Government Agencies?

- Our panel today includes representatives from:
 1. Department of Neighborhoods
 2. Department of Economic Development
 3. Department of Planning and Development
 4. Seattle Public Utilities
 5. Human Services Department
 6. King County Public Health

- Partner Exercise: Are there other government agencies that you might need to consult with for problem-solving help at juvenile crime hot spots?

Panel Discussion

- The West Precinct has been recently collaborating with other government agencies on the Center City Initiative and LEAD project. Lt. Deanna Nollette will introduce panel members.
- Panelists:
 - ▣ What program or service do you provide?
 - ▣ How might your program/agency help us better understand the problem at a “hot spot”?
 - ▣ How might your program/agency help us address the problem at a “hot spot”?

Panelists

- Karen Selander, Department of Neighborhoods
- Daniel Sims, Seattle Public Utilities
- Sola Plumacher, Human Services Department
- Darryl Cook, Human Services Department
- Jessica Knaster Wasse, King County Public Health
- Diane Davis, Code Compliance, Department of Planning and Development
- TBD, Department of Economic Development