College of Humanities and Social Sciences
CENTER FOR EVIDENCE-BASED CRIME POLICY
George Mason University

MASON KOREA
George Mason University

The Center for Evidence-Based Crime Policy at George Mason University and Mason Korea collaboratively present:

Global Perspectives and Approaches to Evidence-Based Crime Policy

June 23 – 24, 2027

at Mason Korea, Incheon Global Campus

June 23 | Pre-Symposium Workshops (1:00pm - 4:00pm)

Workshop #1: How to Conduct Systematic Reviews for Criminal Justice Policy and Practice
Led by Prof. David Wilson

Workshop #2: How to Implement Evidence-Based Policing - An Advanced Introduction
Led by Profs. Cynthia Lum and Christopher S. Koper

June 24 | CEBCP-Mason Korea Symposium (9:00am - 4:30pm)

Featuring experts from South Korea, the U.S., U.K., Australia, and Canada

Panels will include research presented on: Policing • Technology and AI • Cybercrime • Community Crime Prevention • Juvenile Justice • Crime Hot Spots • Evaluating Criminal Justice Interventions • Police Retention and Training • Capacity Building for Evidence-Based Crime Policy

Simultaneous interpretation will be provided for all events.

The workshops and symposium are free to all registrants.

Registration Opens in January